

Front page of the website for the Nordic Cochrane Centre 25 September 2018:
<https://nordic.cochrane.org/>

The screenshot shows the website's front page with a blue header and navigation bar. The header includes the Cochrane Nordic logo and tagline "Trusted evidence. Informed decisions. Better health." along with a search bar. The navigation bar lists "Our centre", "Research", "Courses", "News", "Mammography", "Contact us", and "Symposium 2018". The main content area features a featured article titled "A moral governance crisis: The growing lack of democratic collaboration and scientific pluralism in Cochrane" with a background image of a library. Below this is a "Latest News and Events" section with two news items: "Nordic Cochrane Centre's 25th Anniversary Symposium - Welcome" dated 10 September 2018, and "Testing Treatments is now available in Danish" dated 20 August 2018. A "Tweets by @CochraneNordic" widget displays two tweets from the account, both dated Sep 25, 2018. The footer contains the Cochrane logo, navigation links for "About Cochrane", "Publications", "Community", and "Contact us", and copyright information for 2018 The Cochrane Collaboration.
